

Morning Briefing

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Weather

Light drizzle with a temperature of 28°C, feels like 32°C, so stay cool and carry an umbrella.

Top Headlines

1. Investigation into the incident where a family died in a high-rise fall in London highlights building safety concerns.
2. Belgian PM criticizes breakdown in Franco-German fighter jet talks, impacting European defense cooperation.
3. Archaeologists are puzzled by the discovery of headless skeletons buried 7,000 years ago in Slovakia, posing questions about ancient practices.
4. Christian leaders in Tyre call for action to avert potential conflict following Israeli warnings, stressing regional stability.
5. Controversy over UK's child protection measure using device-level checks, raising privacy and censorship issues.

Tech Digest

1. Former Google CEO Eric Schmidt sparks debate on AI's impact on professions, amidst job loss concerns at a university graduation.
2. VVCE students earn international acclaim for offline AI research, pushing boundaries in edge device technology.
3. CrowdStrike's stock dip underscores investors' complex reactions to AI developments in cybersecurity.
4. Apple introduces AI-driven updates for maps and services, enhancing user experience amid fierce competition.